Friday February 10th, 2012

Travel the World in a Day at FIUTS CulturalFest

CulturalFest is a unique community event that showcases both the University of Washington's global campus and its student leadership. This day-long celebration is produced by FIUTS and the FIUTS Student Board, and welcomes thousands of globally-minded visitors of all ages and backgrounds to the University of Washington for a day of cultural exploration and learning. Visitors enjoy free cultural exhibitions during the day and an evening filled with music and dance performances and a special silent auction reception.

FIUTS is pleased to announce this year's talented CulturalFest performers!
